General remarks

Conveniently located amidst open countryside between the North Yorkshire villages of Hampsthwaite and Killinghall, Hollins Hall provides a range of facilities for retirement buyers which cannot be obtained elsewhere in the Harrogate district.

The detached bungalow with gas fired heating and double glazing provides a carefully designed layout of accommodation ideal for buyer seeking to retain privacy and independence with the comfort of on hand leisure and care facilities if required.

A reception hall gives access to an elegant sitting room, well-appointed kitchen and two bedrooms (the larger having its own en-suite shower room) along with a house bathroom. All rooms feature high ceilings to accommodate cherished furniture pieces and artwork with aspects across communally owned and maintained landscaped gardens from front and rear elevations.

The Hollins Hall residents have immediate access to excellent leisure facilities including the swimming pool / exercise room, a resident's lounge, The Terrace restaurant with the additional comfort of on-site medical care services if required.

The current service charge of £11,555 per annum covers the above leisure and in house facilities along with external property and communal ground / gardens maintenance, buildings insurance and a sinking fund towards infrastructure costs including the external fabric of the bungalow, maintenance of roads, parking areas etc.

As a resident you are responsible for the cost of your own public utility services , contents insurance and any medical costs when the in-house care services are utilised.

PLEASE NOTE THAT FOR MARKETING PURPOSES SOME ROOMS HAVE BEEN PORTRAYED WITH POTENTIAL FURNITURE LAYOUTS.
