General Remarks

This beautifully presented two bedroom, detached 'true' bungalow has a wealth of character including high ceilings and deep bay windows. It also has superb, generous Southerly facing gardens to the rear and is situated on the outer fringe of the regarded Tranmere Park Estate.

This delightful home has a flexible layout with generous reception rooms and bedrooms that could be configured in a number of ways. There is also potential to extend (as have the neighbouring properties), subject to the usual permissions being obtained.

Internally, the property comprises of an entrance porch leading to an entrance hall off with dining room off which has a bay window to the front and a feature fireplace. At the rear of the property is a generous sized lounge with large windows to two elevations affording a good deal of natural light and overlooking the fabulous garden. A French door leads out to a paved seating area and an ornate fire surround houses a living flame coal effect gas fire.

The kitchen is in the centre of the property and has a range of white wall, base and drawer units with working surfaces over. There is also space for a bistro table and external door.

The master bedroom is at the front of the property with a deep bay window and the second double bedroom is at the rear of the property, both have use of the modern shower room which has a step in shower enclosure.

Outside, to the rear, the gardens are fully enclosed with a southerly facing aspect and separated into a patio area and a vast lawned area which is surrounded by mature shrubs and trees. There is also an open aspect to the rear which adjoins the Scout field. At the front of the property there is ample parking, both in front of the property and the driveway which leads to the garage, along with a pleasant summerhouse.

Guiseley offers an excellent range of local shopping, schooling and recreational amenities with its own railway station and the major business centres of both North and West Yorkshire within comfortable travelling distance. Leeds/Bradford International Airport is situated at nearby Yeadon.
