General remarks

"Athol House" is a handsome dressed stone semi-detached Victorian home with gas fired heating and double glazing situated above the thriving Dales town of Pateley Bridge with panoramic views across the Nidderdale Valley.

Cleverly designed within the upper reaches of the valley amidst contoured gardens the accommodation is arranged over four floors and is ideal for the busy family with a healthy lifestyle.

At upper ground floor level with a "wrap around" veranda a reception hall leads to an elegant sitting room, separate dining room, a well-appointed kitchen and a garden room / conservatory.

On the lower ground floor, a versatile range of rooms provides guest bedroom or home office space with a large pantry area and separate shower room and additional storage space all of which could create a self-contained living space.

To the first floor two double bedrooms and a further second floor family bedroom are served by a spacious house bathroom with shower enclosure.

In addition to the superb veranda there are extensive landscaped gardens backing onto the Nidderdale Way which comprise a combination of lawns and seating areas with vehicular access to car parking for at least three vehicles.

This is a protected setting on the Eastern fringes of the township with unrivalled views across the valley and an excellent range of amenities close at hand around the High Street in Pateley Bridge. There are well established local shops and education up to GCSE age group, for the busy commuter there are excellent road links into Harrogate and Ripon.
