Designated a World Heritage Site in 2001, thanks to its historic importance and architectural appeal, Saltaire is a model village with its roots stretching back firmly into the region's textile heritage. The community now provides a highly desirable living environment set on the banks of the River Aire which, with the adjacent Leeds Liverpool Canal, offers fantastic leisure opportunities. Saltaire provides a range of every day shops and other amenities, whilst the local cities of Leeds and Bradford along with the towns of Skipton and Ilkley are all readily accessible thanks to frequent services throughout the day from the village's 'metro' railway station. Beautiful Pennine Countryside made famous by the Bronte's is just a short drive away as is stunning Wharfedale and the Yorkshire Dales National Park. Leeds Bradford International Airport is just some 9 miles from the village.
