ILKLEY

Built on Tradition & Innovation

The DEVELOPMENT

Ashlands Garth is the latest residential development by R N Wooler & Co. Ltd. – a highly regarded local firm with numerous high calibre schemes under their belt and with considerable experience across the residential, commercial and leisure sectors.

This thoughtfully designed project offers a mix of fourteen homes, each enjoying a semi-detached configuration and ranging from two bedroom properties designed for first-time buyers or the more mature, through to three bedroom and four bedroom family homes. These larger homes offer varied layouts with some offering a first floor study, or alternatively an additional ensuite. Please see the following floorplans for individual layouts.

Ashlands Garth enjoys a convenient yet discreet location, with Ashlands Primary School within close proximity and Ilkley town centre a short walk away. The location also provides ready access to some beautiful riverside walks along the Wharfe, whilst a footbridge over the river leads towards Ilkley's renowned Art Deco Lido and the rugby and cricket clubs. The site commands interesting views to the south, across town towards Ilkley's famous moors which offer fabulous walks and endless opportunity for mountain biking.

Life in ILKLEY

Ilkley provides a highly desirable living environment with excellent retail, recreational and social facilities including healthcare, a cinema, theatre and the Winter Gardens. Sports clubs range from the renowned Ilkley Golf Club through to popular cricket, football and rugby clubs, as well as the community's tennis and squash club which also offers gym facilities and fitness classes.

Ilkley retains a magnificent Grade II listed 1930s lido – the outdoor pool being a hub for social activity over the summer months, and a setting from where one can both soak up the sun and enjoy the magnificent views towards the famous moors.

A Bustling TOWN

Those in search of a culinary experience will find plenty of opportunities – from street side cafés, wine bars and bistros, to the famous Box Tree restaurant and also the Burlington restaurant at the Devonshire Arms in Bolton Abbey.

Ilkley blossomed during the Victorian period when lands were released for development and a number of spa hotels were built to cater for those looking to take in the invigorating waters. The prominent white painted public bath house on Ilkley moor is still popular with those taking a traditional refreshing New Year's day dip!

So much that this bustling town has to offer is within comfortable walking distance, with the town centre around 3/4 of a mile away. It is little wonder the Sunday Times gave the town the accolade of 'best place to live' in the North East of England in the spring of 2021, and again in 2025. Come and experience it for yourself!

A short distance from SCENERY OR CITY

Ilkley has its own thriving retail centre, with 'high street' and local traders grouped around The Grove and other pleasant shopping streets.

For those seeking more choice and diversity the vibrant centres of Leeds, Harrogate and York are within easy reach and provide their own individual style of shopping, dining and heritage.

For a more comfortable pace of life the Yorkshire Dales National Park is to be found a few miles to the north of Ilkley and offers some of England's finest countryside, with beautiful river valleys separated by magnificent hill and fell scenery.

At the centre of IT ALL

Standing close to the threshold of the Yorkshire Dales National Park amidst some of Wharfedale's most glorious scenery, Ilkley combines ready access to beautiful open countryside with excellent connectivity to regional business centres and retail destinations. The A1, with its north / south links, can easily be reached within 45 minutes and the town benefits from its own centrally located Metro railway station which offers frequent services throughout the day into both Leeds and Bradford – from the former there are regular daily connections to London Kings Cross.
